

VALENCIA COLLEGE

Chemistry

Lab Technique 15: Testing for Odors

Testing for odors can be a useful qualitative test.

Holding the sample at a safe distance, waft (fan with hand) vapors toward nose.

Note: Never smell a sample directly. Some vapors might induce nausea, cause dizziness or may be toxic.