

Lab Technique 11: Disposing Chemical Waste

All chemical waste must be collected in appropriately labeled waste containers.

Rinse containers once with deionized water into the waste container.

Chemical waste should never be disposed down the sink.

For convenience, keep a labeled beaker on your benchtop to collect any chemicals while you work through the experiment. You can dispose all of it at the end of the lab.

